NATASHA GARGIULO

Award-Winning Media Personality

Award-winning media personality Natasha Gargiulo made a name for herself as the co-host of I HEART Radio's long running and extremely popular morning show in Montreal. In 2025, she was tapped to co-host The Beat 5@7 alongside her new colleague, Cat Spencer. Throughout her career, the former ET Canada correspondent has interviewed a multitude of high-profile stars including Oprah Winfrey, Celine Dion, Jennifer Lopez and George Clooney, and reported from some of the most prestigious film festivals around the world including Cannes Film Festival, Sundance Film Festival, and the Toronto International Film Festival. She has also hosted a myriad of high-profile red carpet events including the GRAMMYS, the Golden Globes, The People's Choice Awards, and Juno Awards. A skilled presenter and host, Natasha lends her warmth and charm to every project she's involved in.

Natasha was the voice behind Cineplex Entertainment's "Hello Movies" podcast, where she led important conversations about the film industry, and in 2020, Natasha became a member of the prestigious Critics Choice Association, the largest group of reputable TV and Film Critics in North America. She was later appointed as social media content producer for the organization, as well as its annual awards shows.

Natasha is also the Canadian Council Chair spokesperson for the Geena Davis Institute on Gender in Media. A host for philanthropic events for various causes, Natasha has worked closely with several charitable organizations, including APJ Artists For Peace and Justice, the Quebec Breast Cancer Foundation, The MUHC Foundations Cardiac Care Centre, and the Montreal Children Hospital Foundation. She is also passionate about empowering women through her speakers' series, and Palmina Productions, which aims at supporting projects that shine a spotlight on female led stories.
